Call for Papers:

“Reach and Influence of Contemporary Chinese Culture”

Sponsored by Huilin Foundation & AICCC, BNU

There is huge incongruity between the influences of contemporary Chinese culture and its economic impact in the world. For contemporary Chinese culture, we believe that we should respect the intrinsic law of cultural development and trigger the discussion and collect wisdom on the fundamental subject, generation of culture.

The proposal for presentation could answer the following topics, but not limited to:

- 1, Connotation and Representation of Cultural Influence,
- 2, Key Factors for the Generation of Cultural Influence in the World,
- 3, Case Studies on the Generation of Prominent Cultural Influences,
- 4, Factors Limiting Contemporary Chinese Cultural Influence, etc.

We encourage you to bring forward other valuable and related topics from the standpoint of your own areas of research. The papers submitted and approved will be published in the “The Third Pole Culture” conference proceedings or recommended for other related academic journals.

Date and Venue

Date: November 24 - 25, 2017

Venue: Jingshi Academy, Beijing Normal University, China

Working Language: Chinese and English (simultaneous interpretation on site)

Deadlines

1, Proposal:

Please send proposals, including title, abstract (max. 500 words), a short bio, and contact information (address, telephone number, e-mail), to aiccc@bnu.edu.cn, before June 30, 2017. Please specify which topic your paper mainly answers, if it's not relevant to any topic suggested above 1-4, please note as “other”.

2, Notification:

Scholars who have submitted their proposals by the deadline will be notified of their inclusion in to the conference before July 31, 2017.

3, Full Papers:

All full paper should be submitted to aciccc@bnu.edu.cn before September 30, 2017.

4, Format:

Manuscripts should be prepared according to the specifications of the Chicago Manual of Style, 16th edition (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2010). Authors are responsible for the accuracy of all quotations and for supplying complete references. All copy, including block quotations, end notes, and reference lists, must be double-spaced, and in Times New Roman font. All footnotes must be converted to endnotes. It is strongly preferred that submissions remain between 6000 and 9000 total word count, though it is understood that this is not always possible.

Publication

Selected papers will be considered to be published in a special issue of International Communication of Chinese Culture.

Fee

The registration fee is 1,200 CNY per scholar which will be fully sponsored by Huilin Foundation.
