

Position, Handa Chair of Japanese – Chinese Relations University of Edinburgh

For details, see: https://www.h-net.org/jobs/job_display.php?id=54466

Applications are invited for the Handa Chair of Japanese-Chinese Relations (including the wider East Asian cultural sphere) within the School of Literatures, Languages and Cultures.

We are seeking candidates for the role of Chair of Japanese-Chinese Relations with experience of Japanese studies to work within our Department of Asian Studies. One of only a few Asian Studies Departments in the UK our Chinese, Japanese and Sanskrit subject areas are sector leading and are a growing focus for the School. This is an exciting opportunity for a candidate with ambition, drive and an appetite to shape and lead the Japanese Studies area through their own expertise. With a need to enhance our international relationships, a commitment to teaching and bringing research expertise in Japanese-Chinese or Korean relations, in society, politics or culture, the successful candidate will be a forward-thinking and ambitious academic. You will have exceptional leadership skills, management ability, academic standing and have the personal qualities and skills to work across a complex, multi-stakeholder environment.

To find out more, please visit the GatenbySanderson website for further information and for an informal and confidential discussion, please contact our advising consultants at GatenbySanderson, Paul Aristides on +44 (0)20 7426 3987, paul.aristides@gatenbysanderson.com or Penny Cunningham on +44 (0)113 205 6297, penny.cunningham@gatenbysanderson.com

Website: <http://www.gatenbysanderson.com/job/GSe31345>

Timetable of the recruitment process

Closing date	24 February 2017
Preliminary Interview	w/c 13 March 2017
Final Panel	11 and 12 April 2017