

INFORMATION FOR PARTICIPANTS

Sinological Development Charitable Foundation Limited is a non-profit organization registered in HK. Our main aim is to help scholars around the world to further understand Chinese culture, philosophy and history by offering relevant programs that will encourage them to integrate Chinese studies into their own teaching and research.

Our Summer Program in Chinese Studies aims at introducing Chinese studies to scholars and key opinion leaders from around the world who are in the disciplines other than Sinology. All instruction is conducted in English and a minimum standard is required for participation.

WAYS OF PARTICIPATION

NON-SPONSORED PARTICIPATION

- Suggested donation for Hong Kong, Taiwan or Beijing at 1,000 HKD per location /per day

- Full participation at 30,000 HKD

**Other expenses (room and board, travel etc.) are not included, and should be managed by participants themselves, with different standards of accommodations.*

SPONSORED PARTICIPATION

SDCF will support a limited number of sponsored participants in the program. Sponsored participants are expected to integrate learning results into their teaching curriculum and research. The travel costs and arrangements to Hong Kong at the beginning of the program and to leave Beijing at the close of program are at their own expenses. All other expenses (tuition, room and board, travel etc.) are covered by SDCF.

CONTRACTUAL AGREEMENT

For sponsored participants, full participation in all seminars and activities are expected. A payback scale will be included in the final agreement for participants who may not finish the 30-day program or participate in the activities and projects stipulated. All sponsored participants are to declare all illnesses, both physical and psychological on the application form and medical records or letters should be included from doctors with the application, where necessary.

HONG KONG – The Classics

The program will commence in Hong Kong, the city with the largest number of English speaking scholars in Chinese Studies. The Book of Change 《易經》, The Four Books 《四書》 and other important Pre-Qin modes of thought will be introduced.

The program will take place at Chung Chi College of The Chinese University of Hong Kong, a key partner to this program.

MACAU and TAIWAN – Study Visits

Buddhism and Daoism will be introduced in Taiwan, where many authentic traditional customs, beliefs, and institutions have been preserved. Participants will be introduced to meditation and training methodologies of the Buddhist and Daoist discipline, to experience and practice in their respective sites.

Macau is a strategic location for Portuguese speaking countries in Europe, Africa and South America. Therefore, an important partner for our program.

BEIJING

The last part of the program will be held at Peking University located in Beijing. Late imperial and contemporary intellectual history will be introduced. The responses to the challenges of Buddhism and various other religious influences as well as the process of meeting the West in contemporary China will be explored in her capital.

THE 24TH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY SDCF Invited Session – August 13-20

The past and present participants of SDCF will present their papers on ‘Being Human in Global Context’ at the 2018 World Congress of Philosophy - the direct outcome of SDCF’s commitment to advance scholarship. Based on the schedule of the WCP2018.

MISSION AND GOAL

The 21st century calls for an enhanced understanding of China. This topic has become one of the most significant pursuits for key opinion leaders and the academia. Sinology, as one of the divisions of Chinese Studies, explores the basis of the traditional spirit of the Chinese nation.

Established by Dr. Elizabeth WOO LI, the Sinological Development Charitable Foundation (SDCF) aims at promoting the studies of Chinese civilization across nations.

SDCF hopes to enhance the stature of Hong Kong as a major hub for the Greater China Region by focusing on creating a platform to exchange sinological ideas and as a cultural forum for sinologists around the globe. The support and development of more sinologists both as a profession and an area of scholarly interest is our main goal.
